Restaurants

La Soupe Populaire

One of the newest additions in town, stationed in the old Bötzwow brewery. The motto is "back to basics". Teutonic classics like the pictured Königsberger Klopse or Bee Sting Cake – menu changes on a regular basis by its creator Tim Raue.

Cookies Cream

A challenge to find, but this just seems to add to the charm of this edgy restaurant with his awesome and well selected choice of vegetarian tastes. Cool in design and a really friendly and comfortable décor.

Pauly Saal

Located in the new arts and dining hub of the former Jewish Girls School with galleries, a bar and garden. The restaurant renovated with a sense for history, style and also a sense of humor features "Landküche" a kind of traditional cooking with an interesting twist.

Bars

Hotel de Rome rooftop terrace

Evening kick off or a relaxed summer day with savoring the gorgeous views from the city's most beautiful roof top terrace. Sit back, sip on a fancy cocktail and enjoy the hippest hideaway in the heart of Berlin.

25 hours Monkey Bar

Monkey Bar is located right next to the restaurant on the tenth floor and is an evening and night-time hotspot for top drinks and delicious bar food created by NENI. It's the perfect place to take in the view of the city and the Tiergarten park, and to experience and absorb Berlin's dynamism and lifestyle

Prinzival Kreuzberg

Like the best bars in Berlin, there is no sign. However once you enter into the long, thin bar, it's like stepping back into the roaring twenties. On Thursday the upstairs floor is a fabulous bar, with burlesque acts including a girl on a cloud swing high above the patrons heads as the uber cool bar staff, the girls in corsets, the boys in suits made old school cocktails.

Shopping

BIKINI Berlin

A concept Mall opening April 2014. The central element for this will be the striking roofscape which almost reaches the proportions of a football field: It is here that the city opens up, connecting with Berlin's 'green lung'. It promises a different shopping experience offering local fashion labels instead of the customary mall partners, a space for global brands for individualised, maybe even unique concepts which can be found nowhere else, but here.

Andreas Murkudis

This concept store might just be the most well known Berlin store world-wide and has helped establish the city's international importance and appeal. The concept store is very well known for its outstanding choice of products, that is still and exclusively done by Andreas Murkudis himself. Ranging from high fashion collections to delicate porcelain designs, the sweet chocolate products, the leather goods, the organic cosmetics will surely make you find many new favorites.
