First day: Arrival to Luang Prabang airport, transfer to the hotel.

Second Day:

Early morning: Witness a Buddhist Tradition at dawn

The morning alms giving to monks (in Lao: Tak Bat) is a living Buddhist tradition for the people of Luang Prabang. In Buddhism, alms or almsgiving is a sign of respect given by laid Buddhists to Buddhist monks and has its very own beauty. You have the opportunity to participate in this religious tradition guided by our staff member.

After breakfast, Cooking Class in our secret garden followed by lunch.

Or Experience the famous Buddha Cave.

You will have the opportunity to visit the pottery village of Ban Chan, after which you will be taken to Ban Xang Khong, a Saa paper making, weaving village, half way of the trip you will be visiting at Ban Xang Hai local whisky village where they produce the famous Lao Lao whisky. You will have a chance to enjoy a nice picnic lunch with the special charming set up right on the beach in the middle of Mekong River.

Or Refresh yourself with a visit to the famous waterfalls.

The route to Kwang Si Waterfalls passes through different villages, green forests and mountain tops with a refreshing ending at the waterfalls, at Kwang Si fall you will have the chance to see some rare animal species before you walk up to the Waterfalls, your lunch will be served at the picnic area, which offers the perfect view
